LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS

Arnold August has an MA in political science from McGill University, Canada. He is an Author, Journalist and Lecturer living in Montreal. He is the author of Democracy in Cuba and the 1997–98 Elections (1999) and Cuba and Its Neighbours: Democracy in Motion (2013).

Denise Baden has a PhD in Psychology from the University of Southampton and is currently Lecturer at the School of Management, University of Southampton. She specialises in Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and Business Ethics and has published widely on the topic of CSR in small- and medium-sized businesses.

Aleida Cobas Valdés has a master’s degree in Economic Analysis and Public Economics from the University of the Basque Country and a degree in Economics from the University of Havana. She teaches in the Department of Applied Economics III (Econometrics and Statistics), University of the Basque Country (Universidad del País Vasco/Euskal Herriko Unibertsitatea (UPV/EHU)) – Spain.

Ana Fernández Sainz has a PhD in Economics and a master’s degree in Public Economics and Quality Expertise. She is Professor of Econometrics at the Department of Applied Economics III (Econometrics and Statistics) at the University of the Basque Country (UPV/EHU) – Spain.

Guillermo Foladori has a PhD in Economics from the Autonomous University of Mexico. He is currently working in the Unit of Development Studies at the Autonomous University of Zacatecas, Mexico. His research interests are in society and technology, nanotechnology, health and society and environmental studies.

Jenny Fortune is Senior Lecturer in Architecture at Sheffield Hallam University. Her research publications include gender and the built environment, and sustainable housing.

Judith Hernández Ruiz has a PhD in Development Studies from the Autonomous University of Zacatecas. She is currently working in the Technological University of the State of Zacatecas, Mexico. Her research interests are in population and development, international migration and gender studies with emphasis on Cuba.

Steve Ludlam is Senior Lecturer in Politics at the University of Sheffield and a member of the editorial board of the International Journal of Cuban Studies. His research interests include labour relations in Cuba and the contemporary Latin American politics.

David L. Strug (strug@yu.edu) is Professor Emeritus of Social Work at the Wurzweiler School of Social Work of Yeshiva University in New York City. He has travelled to Cuba frequently to conduct research on older persons, on the development of social work, and on social work and community health care. He is co-editor of Community Health Care in Cuba (Lyceum 2010). He is also a co-author of Love, Loss and Longing: The Impact of U.S. Travel Restrictions on Cuban–American Families (Latin America Working Group, 2009).

Stephen Wilkinson has a PhD in Cuban literature from the University of London. He is currently the Chairman of the editorial board of the International Journal of Cuban Studies and lectures part-time on Cuba Health Care at King’s College London.
GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

We welcome the submission of academic articles in Spanish or English on any aspect related to Cuba, provided that they adhere to the aims and scope of the journal.

Articles should be original and not under consideration by any other publication. Authors are responsible for obtaining written permission to publish, in both print and electronic media, material for which they do not hold the copyright.

Length
Articles must be between 3000 and 4500 words in length (5000 words maximum).

Language
All Spanish language articles will be published in English. Because the IJCS used to operate on an open access basis, editorial resources are limited at present and we are able to translate only one article per issue. Contributors should provide, where possible, an English translation of their articles.

Style
The journal aims for rigour and relevance. We wish to encourage a wide readership and to facilitate connections between academic disciplines. We are therefore interested in innovative articles that are written in a clear, accessible style with objective arguments that are evidence-based. Without compromising on academic rigour, contributors are requested to limit the use of specialised terminology to the essential. For the submission, please employ endnotes rather than footnotes. Endnotes should be numbered consecutively and kept to a minimum in number and length. Bibliographical references should be checked for accuracy. Style guides can be found at: www.plutojournals.com/ijcs/

Format
Contributions should be formatted as A4 Microsoft Word files (Mac files must be converted), double-spaced and with ample margins. All pages, including those containing only tables and figures, should be numbered consecutively. A clear legible font should be used.

Title document
The following information should be provided in a separate document: the title of the article; an abstract of 150 words; a list of 5 or 6 keywords.
Biographical information
In a separate document send us a short biographical note including: the author’s name and current affiliation as they should appear in the journal, mailing and e-mail addresses, and day-time telephone number; details of your main appointment or position and the institution for which you work; a brief note indicating your most important publications and current research interests; any relevant website links.

Tables and figures (charts, graphs, or other artwork)
It is the responsibility of the author to obtain permission to reproduce any illustrations that may be subject to copyright, and sources should be indicated appropriately in the accompanying captions. The use of figures and tables should be kept to a minimum, with only essential data presented. Each should be numbered consecutively, titled, and mentioned in the main text. Tables must contain editable text. Figures should be supplied as separate editable files where possible (preferably in EPS, Illustrator or Excel format) and not in colour. Picture files or jpegs are usually unsuitable for figures, but can be supplied for photographs if they are of good quality. Website links to pictures or maps can also be used.

Proofs
The editors reserve the right to copyedit all articles accepted for publication. Proofs will be sent by email to the authors only if essential corrections need to be made.

Peer Review
All articles will be reviewed anonymously by two peer reviewers, one of whom will be a specialist in the same field as that of the article. We welcome suggestions for referees from the author though these recommendations may or may not be used.

Copyright
The journal will be published online and in print. Authors will be asked to transfer copyright of the article for the full period of copyright to the International Institute for the Study of Cuba. Authors will receive a Copyright Form for signature upon the acceptance of the article for publication.

Submission
All contributions should be submitted as an email attachment (in Word for Windows) to Dr Stephen Wilkinson: s.wilkinson@cubastudies.org or sent as a hard copy to:

Dr Stephen Wilkinson
Cloudhill, Chesham Road, Wigginton, Tring, HP23 6EH, United Kingdom

Please note that for articles submitted by post four complete copies of all documents would be needed.
GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Complimentary copies and free e-offprints
Authors will receive a complimentary copy of the issue in which their article appears. Electronic offprints (pdf) are available upon request.

Books for review should be sent to Dr Stephen Wilkinson at the International Institute for the Study of Cuba and editorial correspondence can be addressed to: s.wilkinson@cubastudies.org

If you are interested in joining the IJCS team of book reviewers and peer-reviewers, please email Dr Wilkinson with your details.

To request permissions or enquire about advertising opportunities, email: info@plutojournals.com
SUBSCRIPTIONS

The International Journal of Cuban Studies (IJCS) is published by Pluto Journals on behalf of the International Institute for the Study of Cuba and is distributed worldwide by Marston Book Services.

Electronic access to the journal is free for all individuals and institutions in Cuba.

Subscriptions to this title can be purchased online or at your chosen subscription agency.

For ordering information, please contact:
Subscriptions Dept (Pluto Journals)
Marston Book Services Ltd
160 Eastern Avenue
Milton Park
Abingdon
Oxfordshire
OX14 4SB
UK
Email: subscriptions@marston.co.uk
Tel: +44 [0]1235 465 574

Subscription rates for 2014

Prices are inclusive of standard postage.

INSTITUTIONAL
Print: $250; £165; €200
Online only: $225; £150; €175
Print and online: $275; £180; €210

INDIVIDUALS
Print only: $100; £70; €85
Online only: $70; £45; €50

IJCSProduced and distributed by Pluto Journals www.plutojournals.com/ijcs/