GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

Submission: Articles should not have been published elsewhere or be under consideration for any other publication at the time. Contributions should be no longer than 8,500 words and should be submitted as an email attachment in Word to the editor, Ibrahim Aoudé: aoude@hawaii.edu. Authors should also include a 100-150 word abstract, outlining the aims, scope and conclusions but not containing sentences from the article; a list of six key words should be suggested.

Biographical information: Correspondence should include the author’s name and current affiliation as they should appear on the journal, and contact information (email address, day-time phone and fax numbers, and mailing address: all to remain confidential).

Format: Articles should be submitted as Word files, double-spaced and with ample margins. All pages, including those containing only tables and figures, should be numbered consecutively.

Style: Arabic words should be transliterated in accordance with the system used by the Cataloguing Service of the Library of Congress (Bulletin 91 of September 1970). Authors are responsible for the consistency and accuracy of transliteration. Diacritical marks should be omitted unless they are imperative to the argument. Loan-words (accepted English words such as Quran, sheik, Shiite, Sunni) are spelled in accordance with the first choice listed in the American Heritage Dictionary. For the submission, please employ endnotes rather than footnotes. Endnotes should be numbered consecutively and kept to a minimum both in number and length. Bibliographical references should be checked for accuracy. Style guides can be found at: www.plutojournals.com/asq/

Copyright and permissions: The journal will be published online and in print. Authors will receive a Copyright Form for signature upon acceptance of an article for publication. Contributors are responsible for obtaining written permission to make use, in both print and electronic media, of material for which they do not hold the copyright and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscripts.

Proofs: The editors reserve the right to copyedit all articles accepted for publication. Proofs will be sent by email to the authors only if essential corrections need to be made. Authors are expected to correct and return within 48 hours.

Books for review should be sent to: Seif Da’Na, Associate Professor, Department of Sociology, University of Wisconsin-Parkside, 900 Wood RD, Kenosha, WI 53141.
