The Journal of Intersectionality

Making Spaces
Art, Culture, & Difference in Iraqi Kurdistan

Volume Six
Number One
Making Spaces: Art, Culture & Difference in Iraqi Kurdistan

Is dedicated to the memory of Mamosta Ismail Khayat who passed on to his eternal rest October 20, 2022.

“Another Self-portrait” by Ismail Khayat, 1967.
This image is part of the artist’s personal archives and was used with permission.

DOI: 10.13169/jinte.6.1.0000
Making Spaces:
Art, Culture, & Difference in Iraqi Kurdistan

CONTENTS

1 Guest Editor’s Introduction: Critical Artwork, Critical Actions and the Inclusion of Difference
   Autumn Cockrell-Abdullah, Ph.D.

17 Painting Without Paint: Four Sisters, Three Dresses
   Nuveen Barwari

30 The Impact of the Evil Side of the English Language on My Life as an Artist
   Halgurd A. Baram

41 What if Life Were Black and White?: An Interview with Behjat Omar Abdulla
   Meriwan Abdullah

51 The Cycle That Brought Me, This Self, and Art Together
   Niga Salam & Bzhwen Jamal

59 Highlighting the Invisible: An Interview with Avan Sidq
   Meriwan Abdullah with Allison Applefeller

68 Space in the City’s Memory: An Example of Statues in Sulaymaniyah
   Zamoa Daraga

79 Civic Engagement, Public Intellectualism, and Art
   Autumn Cockrell-Abdullah, Ph.D.