Black and dangerous?
Rebecca Omonira listens to patients’ experiences of mental health services
Haldane Society of Socialist Lawyers

PO Box 64195, London WC1A 9FD
www.haldane.org

The Haldane Society was founded in 1930. It provides a forum for the discussion and analysis of law and the legal system, both nationally and internationally, from a socialist perspective. It holds frequent public meetings and conducts educational programmes. The Haldane Society is independent of any political party.

Membership comprises lawyers, academics, students and legal workers as well as trade union and labour movement affiliates. The list of the current executive, elected at the AGM on 14th November 2013, is as follows:

President: Michael Mansfield QC

Vice Presidents: Geoffrey Bindman QC, Louise Christian, Tess Gill, Tony Gifford QC, John Hendy QC, Helena Kennedy QC, Imran Khan, Catrin Lewis, Gareth Peirce, Michael Seifert, David Turner-Samuels, Estella Schmidt, Phil Shiner, Jeremy Smith, Frances Webber, David Watkinson

Chair: Liz Davies (ldavies@riseup.net)

Vice-Chairs: Kat Craig and Anna Morris (annam@gclaw.co.uk)

Secretary (job-share): Russell Fraser & Michael Goold (secretary@haldane.org)

Socialist Lawyer editor: Tim Potter (socialistlawyer@haldane.org)

Treasurer: Rebecca Harvey

Membership Secretary: Debbie Smith (membership@haldane.org)

International Secretary: Bill Bowring (international@haldane.org)

Executive Committee:
- Robert Atkins
- Martha Jean Baker
- Nick Bano
- Jacob Bindman
- Natalie Csengeri
- Rheaian Davies
- Emily Elliott
- Elizabeth Forrester
- Margaret Gordon
- Agnieszka Grabianka-Hindley
- Owen Greenhal
- Richard Harvey (co-opted, non-voting)
- Caroline Hejazi
- Paul Heron
- John Hobson
- Sophie Khan
- Angus King
- Stephen Knight
- Sibiobhan Lloyd
- Natasha Lloyd-Owen
- Carlos Orujela
- Declan Owens
- Sam Parham
- Wendy Pettifer
- Ripon Ray
- David Renton
- Brian Richardson
- Hannah Rought-Brooks
- Marina Sergides (co-opted)
- Adiam Weldensae

News & comment

- Citizenship; Birkbeck; food banks; trafficking; ELDH activities; Easton Cowboys plus On The Picket Line and Young Legal Aid Lawyers columns

Gerry Conlon

Gareth Peirce on the death of Gerry Conlon, and why Gerry’s life is a reminder that wrongful convictions happen everywhere, by Michael Naughton

Ecocide

Priska Merz argues it is now time to act against the large-scale damage or destruction of ecosystems

Water cannon

In June the Metropolitan police bought a supply of water cannon from Germany. Natalie Sedacca asks if it is for preventing disorder or quelling democratic rights?

Creating Memory is our Weapon

Photo essay featuring the work of B+ and Coleman of the famous march in 2001 on Mexico City by the insurgent Indian people of Chiapas

Black and dangerous?

Rebecca Omonira asks why are black people with mental health problems more likely to be heavily medicated, restrained and detained against their will?

The United States, Colombia and the spread of the death squad state

Daniel Kovalik looks at how the US maintains its ‘false-positive’ nightmare in Colombia

Swiss judiciary declines justice

Annelen Micus reports on the murder of Colombian Nestlé worker and Sinaltrainal trade unionist Luciano Romero

One of many Saturdays in prison

Camilo Insuasty-Obando recounts visiting his mother, a leading political campaigner, in prison in Colombia

New York’s toxic justice for the Ecuadorian oilfields

Corporate America dumps on Ecuador’s indigenous people, argues Alexander J. Preiss

Reviews

The Killing of Blair Peach; Young Rebels – The Story of the Southall Youth Movement and Wonderlands